ARTICLE II. Prerogatives

Section 1. This church shall have the right to govern itself according to the standards of the New Testament Scriptures, and particularly to be guided by the standards as set in the twelfth, thirteenth and fourteenth chapters of First Corinthians, "endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace...till we all come to the unity of the faith, and the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ." Ephesians 4:3, 13.

Section 2. In connection, it will also have the right to purchase or to acquire by gift, bequest, or otherwise, either directly or as trustee, and to own, hold in trust, use, sell, convey, mortgage, lease or otherwise dispose of any real estate, property or possessions, as may be necessary for the furthering of its purposes.

ARTICLE III. Affiliation

While maintaining its inherent rights to sovereignty in the conduct of its own affairs, Living Hope Church shall voluntarily enter into full fellowship with the Assemblies, of like precious faith associated with the Indiana District Council of the Assemblies of God (or its successor in interest) and the General Council of the Assemblies of God, and shall share in the privileges and assume the responsibilities enjoined by that affiliation.

ARTICLE IV. Tenets of Faith

This church shall contend for the Holy Scriptures as the revealed will of God, the all-sufficient rule for faith and practice, and for the purpose of maintaining general unity, adopts the Statement of Fundamental Truths of the General Council of the Assemblies of God, as follows:

1. The Scriptures Inspired

The Scriptures, both the Old and New Testaments, are verbally inspired of God and are the revelation of God to man, the infallible, authoritative rule of faith and conduct (2 Tim. 3:15-17; 1 Thess. 2:13; 2 Peter 1:21).

2. The One True God

The one true God has revealed Himself as the eternally self-existent "I AM", the creator of heaven and earth and the Redeemer of mankind. He has further revealed Himself as embodying the principles of relationship and association as Father, Son and Holy Spirit (Duet. 6:4; Isa. 43:10, 11; Matt. 28:19; Luke 3:22).

3. The Deity of the Lord Jesus Christ

The Lord Jesus Christ is the eternal Son of God. The Scriptures declare;

- (a) His virgin birth (Matt. 1:23; Luke 1:31,35).
- (b) His sinless life (Heb. 7:26; 1 Peter 2:22).
- (c) His miracles (Acts 2:22; 10:38).
- (d) His substitutionary work on the cross (1 Cor. 15:3; 11 Cor. 5:21).
- (e) His bodily resurrection from the dead (Matt. 28: 6; Luke 24:39; 1 Cor. 15:4).
- (f) His exaltation to the right hand of God (Acts 1:9,11; 2:33; Phil. 2:9-11; Heb. 1-3)

4. The Fall of Man

Man was created good and upright, for God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness." However, man by voluntary transgression fell and thereby incurred not only physical death but also spiritual death, which is separation from God (Genesis 1:26, 27; 2:17; 3:6; Romans 5:12-19).

5. The Salvation of Man

Man's only hope of redemption is through the shed blood of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

(a) Conditions to Salvation

Salvation is received through repentance toward God and faith toward the Lord Jesus Christ. By the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit, being justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God according to the hope of eternal life (Luke 24:47; John 3:3; Romans 10:13-15; Ephesians 2:8; Titus 2:11; 3:5-7).

(b) The Evidences of Salvation

The inward evidence of salvation is the direct witness of the Spirit (Romans 8:16). The outward evidence to all men is a life of righteousness and true holiness (Eph. 4:24; Titus 2:12).

6. The Ordinances of the Church

(a) Baptism in Water

The ordinance of baptism by immersion is commanded in the Scriptures. All who repent and believe on Christ as Savior and Lord are to be baptized. Thus, they declare to the world that they have died with Christ and that they also have been raised with Him to walk in newness of life (Matt. 28:19; Mark 16:16; Acts 10; 47,48; Romans 6:4).

(b) Holy Communion

The Lord's Supper, consisting of the elements - bread and the fruit of the vine - is the symbol expressing our sharing the divine nature of our Lord Jesus Christ (II Peter 1:4); a memorial of His suffering and death (I Cor. 11:26); and a prophecy of His second coming (I Cor. 11:26); and is enjoined on all believers "till He comes!"

7. The Baptism in the Holy Spirit

All believers are entitled to and should ardently expect and earnestly seek the promise of the Father, the Baptism in the Holy Spirit and fire, according to the command of our Lord Jesus Christ. This was the normal experience of all in the early Christian Church. With it comes the endowment of power for life and service, and bestowment of the gifts and their uses in the work of the ministry (Luke 24:49; Acts 1:4, 8; I Cor. 12:1-31). This experience is distinct from and subsequent to the experience of the new birth (Acts 8:12 -17; 10:44-46, 11:14-16; 15:7-9). With the baptism in the Holy Spirit comes such experiences as an overflowing fullness of the Spirit (John 7:37-39; Acts 4:8), a deepened reverence for God (Acts 2:43; Heb. 12:28), an intensified consecration to God and dedication to His work (Acts 2:42), and a more active love for Christ, for His Word, and for the lost (Mark 16:20).

8. The Evidence of the Baptism in the Holy Spirit

The baptism of believers in the Holy Spirit is witnessed by the initial physical sign of speaking with other tongues as the Spirit of God gives them utterance (Acts 2:4). The speaking in tongues in this instance is the same in essence as the gift of tongues (I Cor. 12:4-10, 28), but different in purpose and use.

9. Sanctification

Sanctification is an act of separation from that which is evil, and of dedication unto God (Rom. 12:1,2; I Thess. 5:23; Hebrews 13:12). The scriptures teach a life of "holiness without which no man shall see the Lord" (Hebrews 12:14). By the power of the Holy Spirit we are able to obey the command: "Be ye holy, for I am holy." (I Peter 1:15, 16).

Sanctification is realized in the believer by recognizing his identification with Christ in His death and resurrection, and by faith reckoning daily upon the fact of that union, and by offering every faculty continually to the dominion of the Holy Spirit (Romans 6:1 - 11, 13; 8:1,2,13; Galatians 2:20; Philippians 2:12, 13; I Peter 1:5).

10. The Church and its Mission

The Church is the Body of Christ, the habitation of God through the Spirit, with divine appointments for the fulfillment of her great commission. Each believer, born of the Spirit, is an integral part of the General Assembly and Church of the Firstborn, which are written in heaven (Ephesians 1:22, 23; 2:22; Hebrews 12:23).

Since God's purpose concerning man is to seek and to save that which is lost, to be worshiped by man, and to build a body of believers in the image of His Son, the priority reason-for-being of the Assemblies of God as part of the church is:

- (a) To be an agency of God for evangelizing the world (Acts 1: 8; Matthew 28:19, 20; Mark 16: 15,16).
- (b) To be a corporate body in which man may worship God (I Cor. 12:13).

- (c) To be a channel of God's purpose to build a body of saints being perfected in the image of His Son (Eph. 4:11-16; I Cor. 12:28; I Cor. 14:12).

The Assemblies of God exists expressly to give continuing emphasis to this reason-for-being in the New Testament apostolic pattern by teaching and encouraging believers to be baptized in the Holy Spirit. This experience:

- (a) Enables them to evangelize in the power of the Spirit with accompanying supernatural signs (Mark 16:15-20; Acts 4:29-31; Hebrews 2:3,4).
- (b) Adds a necessary dimension to a worshipful relationship with God (I Cor. 2:10-16; I Cor. 12, 13 and 14).
- (c) Enables them to respond to a full working of the Holy Spirit in expression of fruit And gifts and ministries as in New Testament times for the edifying of the body of Christ (Gal.5:22-26; I Cor. 14:12; Eph. 4:11, 12; I Cor. 12:28; Col. 1:29).

11. The Ministry

A divinely called and scripturally ordained ministry has been provided by our Lord for the threefold purpose of leading the church in: (1) Evangelization of the World (Mark 16:15-20), (2) Worship of God (John 4:23,24), (3) Building a body of saints being perfected in the image of His Son (Ephesians 4:11-16).

12. Divine Healing

Divine healing is an integral part of the gospel. Deliverance from sickness is provided for in the atonement, and is the privilege of all believers (Isa. 53:4,5; Matt. 8:16,17; James 5:14-16).

13. The Blessed Hope

The resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in Christ and their translation together with those who are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord is the imminent and blessed hope of the Church (I Thess. 4:16,17; Romans 8:23; Titus 2:13; I Cor. 15:51,52).

14. The Millennial Reign of Christ

The second coming of Christ includes the rapture of the saints, which is our blessed hope, followed by the visible return of Christ with His saints to reign on the earth for one thousand years (Zech. 14:5; Matt. 24:27,30; Rev. 1:7, 19:11-14,20:1-6). This millennial reign will bring the salvation of national Israel (Ezekiel 37:21,22; Zephaniah 3:19,20; Romans 11:26,27) and the establishment of universal peace (Isaiah 11: 6-9; Psalms 72:3-8; Micah 4:3,4).

15. The Final Judgment

There will be a final judgment in which the wicked dead will be raised and judged according to their works. Whosoever is not found written in the Book of Life, together with the devil and his angels, the beast and the false prophet, will be consigned to everlasting punishment in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is the second death (Matt. 25:46; Mark 9:43-48; Revelation 19:20; 20:11-15; 21:8).

16. The New Heavens and the New Earth

"We, according to His promise, look for the new heavens and a new earth wherein dwelleth righteousness" (II Peter 3:13; Rev. 21:22).

ARTICLE V. Ordinances

Section 1. The ordinance of baptism by immersion in water shall be administered to all who have believed on the Lord Jesus Christ to the saving of their souls, and who give clear evidence of their salvation. (Matthew 28:18-20; Romans 6:1-5).

Section 2. The ordinance of Communion will be observed as directed in the Scriptures (Luke 22:19,20; I Cor. 11:23-26).

ARTICLE VI. Special Ministries

Section 1. Infants and small children may be dedicated to the Lord in the church upon request of the parents or guardians through Child Dedications. (Mark 10:13-16; Luke 18:15,16).

Section 2. The ministry of laying on of hands accompanied with the anointing with oil, for the healing of the sick, shall be granted as requested and as the need may require (Mark 16:15-18; James 5:14).

ARTICLE VII. Membership

Membership in this church shall be available to all those who give evidence of their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, and who voluntarily subscribe to its Tenets of Faith and agree to be governed by its Constitution. Standards for membership will be established by the Council of Elders and printed on "Application for Membership" cards. Membership applicants shall be required to attend a course on church membership.

All applicants shall be required to have a spiritual background of at least three months of Christian living and attendance in the local church and sign a membership card. The names of all applicants for membership shall be read and/or published at least one Sunday prior to their becoming members of the church. Anyone knowing a cause why an applicant should not become a member shall notify the Lead Pastor or an Elder prior to their membership. These matters will then be discussed with the applicant by the Lead Pastor and/or Council of Elders for clarification. The decision of the Lead Pastor and the Council of Elders shall be final. The Lead Pastor and the Council of Elders may also accept letters of transference from other Assemblies of God churches upon the signing of a membership card by the applicant. The membership shall be classified as follows:

Section I. Active Membership

(a) Voting Membership

All those who meet the Scriptural standards for membership and whose names appear on the membership roll shall constitute the legal voting membership of the church, provided they are sixteen years of age or over, that they attend the church and take part in the services, that they are living Christian lives and are in agreement with our distinctive testimony and are willing to support this local church with their tithes and offerings. Pastoral staff and spouses shall become active members, with full privileges and responsibilities, during their time of ministry at Living Hope Church.

(b) Honorary Membership

Anyone who has left the active membership of this church to engage in the full time ministry shall constitute the honorary membership of this church and shall be entitled to all the privileges of the church with the exception of voting and holding office.

Section 2. Voluntary Severance

Section 3. Revision of Membership Roll

The Council of Elders shall have the right to remove from active membership any member who shall willfully absent himself from the regular services of the Church for a period of three (3) consecutive months except for physical disability, or who shall cease to contribute financially, or who shall be under charges for misconduct, or who may have made a doctrinal departure from the tenets of faith held by this Church on our Church Membership card, or who shall have fallen below the standard of membership as provided in Article VII, Section I of the Bylaws.

If the inactive member shall desire reinstatement, the inactive member shall petition the Elders to have his/her name returned to the active list. Upon receiving the request, the Elders shall render a decision. If the petition is granted, the member may resume voting privileges after having been active for a period of two (2) months.

Section 4 - Marriage Ceremonies

We recognize that God created male and female (Genesis 1:27, Genesis 5:2, Genesis, 6:19, Matthew 19:4, Mark 10:6). A person's gender is determined by their biological sex at birth. God established marriage between a man and a woman (Genesis 2:24, Matthew 19:4-6, Ephesians 5:31-32). Living Hope Church will not permit any pastor of the church, nor any person within the body of Living Hope Church, nor any pastor from any other church, to use any part of the Living Hope Church facilities or property to perform any type of marriage, counseling, cohabitation, covenant ceremony or service for persons who are of the same sex, or for those who have changed their gender assigned at birth, or for those who desire polyamorous marriage.

Should division occur as the result of this or other causes, the District Officiary shall be called in to arbitrate the difference and final decision.

ARTICLE XVI. Dissolution of Property

In the event the congregation should cease to exist as a church body, the property is to revert to the Indiana District Assemblies of God, which shall be authorized hereby to sell this property, or to use it in any way they see fit for the cause of Christ in the District.

ARTICLE XVII. Church Arbitration Procedure

Inasmuch as the scriptures require Christians to take their dispute to the saints and not to the civil courts (I Cor. 6:1-8), all disputes which may arise between any member of this church and any other member of the church itself (including any officer or director thereof), shall be resolved by binding arbitration if efforts to mediate or conciliate the dispute have failed. Either party to the dispute may initiate the arbitration process by filing with the other party a written request for arbitration within a reasonable time after the dispute has arisen and efforts to mediate or conciliate have failed. In such a case, both parties shall each name an arbitrator, and the two so selected shall name a third. All arbitrators must be born-again Christians who have received the baptism in the Holy Spirit (according to Acts 2:4) and who are members in good standing of an Assemblies of God church. The third arbitrator chosen by the other two shall disclose, before accepting the appointment, any financial or personal interest in the outcome of the arbitration, and any existing or past financial, professional, family, or social relationships which are likely to affect impartiality or which might reasonably create an appearance of partiality or bias. Either of the parties to the arbitration, on the basis of such disclosures, may disqualify such a candidate from serving as the third arbitrator. A third arbitrator who serves without objection from either party has a continuing duty to disclose relationships or interests which may impair his impartiality. Either party, regardless of the stage of the arbitration process, may on the basis of such disclosure disqualify such a person from further participation. The arbitration process shall not proceed until the third arbitrator is selected.

The arbitration proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with the principles found in the Bible, with particular reference to I Corinthians 6:1-8 and Matthew 18:15-20. The arbitrators shall appoint the time and place for the hearing and cause notification to the parties to be served personally or by registered mail not less than twenty days before the hearing. Appearance at the hearing waives such notice. The arbitrators may adjourn the hearing from time to time as necessary and on request of a party and for good cause, or upon their own motion, may postpone the hearing to a later date. The arbitrators may hear and determine the controversy upon the evidence produced notwithstanding the failure of a party duly notified to appear. The parties are entitled to be heard, to present evidence material to the controversy, and to cross-examine witnesses appearing at the hearing. The hearing shall be conducted by all the arbitrators, but a majority of them may determine any question and render a final award. If during the course of the hearing an arbitrator for any reason ceases to act, he shall be replaced in the same manner in which he was originally selected. The arbitrators may in their absolute discretion admit as evidence any affidavit or declaration concerning the matters in dispute, a copy thereof having been given at least twenty days previously to the party against whom the same is offered but the person whose evidence is so taken shall be subject to cross-examination by such party. The arbitrators shall have the power to order and direct what they shall deem necessary to be done by either of the parties relating to the matters in dispute. Costs of the arbitration shall be assessed in the discretion of the arbitrators. Any submission of a dispute to arbitration shall not be revoked by the death of any party to the dispute, and any award will be binding upon such person's heirs and successors.

The decision of the arbitrators shall be binding on both parties, and both parties submit themselves to the personal jurisdiction of the courts of Indiana, both state and federal, for the entry of a judgment confirming the arbitrators' award.

The arbitration process is not a substitute for any disciplinary process set forth in the constitution or bylaws of the church, and shall in no way affect the authority of the church to investigate reports of misconduct, conduct hearings, or administer discipline.

ARTICLE XVIII. Order of Business

Section 1. The regular order of business for the annual meeting of the church shall be as follows:

1. Opening
2. Election of Officers & Deacons (Affirming Elders and Voting on Deacons)
3. Affirmation of Elders
4. Reading previous minutes
5. Report of the Treasurer
6. Election of Officers & Deacons (Finalizing Results of Election)
7. Adjournment

Section 2. All business meetings shall be conducted according to "Roberts Rules of Order, Revised.".

ARTICLE XIX. Constitutional Revisions or Changes

This Constitution may be revised, amended or changed by a two-thirds vote of the voting membership of the church in attendance at any regular or special meeting called for that purpose, provided that due notice of such proposed change shall have been made at the regular Sunday services on two Sundays preceding the time for such meeting. All revisions, amendments, or changes shall be considered by a committee appointed by the Lead Pastor and Council of Elders and their conclusions shall be presented for ratification by the voting membership as provided herein. Copies of revisions, amendments and/or changes to the Constitution shall be made available to all members of the church at the time of the first notice of the meeting called for such revisions, amendments and/or changes.

ARTICLE XX. Participation in Leadership

It is our purpose to follow standards in accordance with Biblical principles. Therefore, church leaders should use wisdom in allowing those who participate in leadership roles and positions. Those in leadership should uphold a Godly life and example to those around them.
