DON'T FORGET! THE LYRICS!

That moment when my cell phone rings and it's a local number I don't know but I answer it anyway.... and it's my daughter's friend demanding to know about "Gianna's lunch situation" and why I don't "let her" buy hot lunch. And then having to explain to a well-intended 7 year old that Gianna doesn't like a lot of the hot lunches, and others upset her stomach so I mostly pack her healthy food from home that she enjoys and reassured her that Gianna is well fed and happy! Ah geez- as if moms don't judge each other enough I'm feeling my parenting authority questioned by school kids now too! 😏

Oh no... I'm out of town at a conference in Lafayette and I happened to read your post.... please tell me that wasn't my Kenzington! 😂

It was. 😂

She is so confident and protective of Gianna. I love it. Just totally shocked me! Lol!

Her intentions were good and that's what I look for. Gianna is lucky to have a friend like her! ❤️

Oh my goodness! I can never leave town again! That little stinker! She mentioned to me the other day that Gianna didn't eat school lunches, I didn't think anything of it. I CANNOT believe she called you! I'm so sorry. I will definitely have a little talk with her when I get home about minding her own business

😂😂😂

She's actually having hot lunch tomorrow! It's just that G's stomach is sensitive and if she has too many trigger foods, she'll get reflux, so I promise, I'm not trying to be mean to me kid! But Kenzie is just looking out for her friend, and I adore that! It's ok!

DEUTERONOMY 6:1-3 NLT

“These are the commands, decrees, and regulations that the Lord your God commanded me to teach you. You must obey them in the land you are about to enter and occupy, 2 and you and your children and grandchildren must fear the Lord your God as long as you live.

DEUTERONOMY 6:4-8 NLT

4 “Listen, O Israel! The Lord is our God, the Lord alone.[a] 5 And you must love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your strength. 6 And you must commit yourselves wholeheartedly to these commands that I am giving you today.

DEUTERONOMY 6:4-8 NLT

7 Repeat them again and again to your children. Talk about them when you are at home and when you are on the road, when you are going to bed and when you are getting up.

8 Tie them to your hands and wear them on your forehead as reminders.

OUR HISTORY

Lyttleton Pentecostal Church was established in the early part of the 20th century, circa 1930. Two local men heard and recieved the pentecostal message while working in Campbellton, N.B. Upon returning home, they began to tell of the good things that God was doing and especially about the Baptism of the Holy Ghost and speaking in tongues. Their message was not very well recieved in the community. They even lost their jobs because they insisted that the Baptism of the Holy Ghost was for today.

Eventually they began a Church where people of like faith could meet together and worship God. Their beginnings were very humble. Their first building was a log cabin that one could see through the cracks. Stories are told of the building being pelted with rocks during services as well as other distractions such as covering the chimney to fill the Church with smoke.

One elderly gentleman said that he would sit outside of the Church and listen to the pastor, Della Carstead, pray for hours.
